

Proverbs 28.13: "People who cover over their sins will not prosper. But if they confess and forsake them, they will receive mercy."

Genesis 2.25: "Now, although Adam and his wife were both naked, neither of them felt any shame."

Genesis 3.6-13: "The woman was convinced. The fruit looked so fresh and delicious, and it would make her so wise! So she ate some of the fruit. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her. Then he ate it, too. At that moment, their eyes were opened, and they suddenly felt shame at their nakedness. So they strung fig leaves together around their hips to cover themselves. Toward evening they heard the LORD God walking about in the garden, so they hid themselves among the trees. The LORD God called to Adam, 'Where are you?' He replied, 'I heard you, so I hid. I was afraid because I was naked.' 'Who told you that you were naked?' the LORD God asked. 'Have you eaten the fruit I commanded you not to eat?' 'Yes,' Adam admitted, 'but it was the woman you gave me who brought me the fruit, and I ate it.' Then the LORD God asked the woman, 'How could you do such a thing?' 'The serpent tricked me,' she replied. 'That's why I ate it.'"
